

I am writing to express my opposition to the petition by BellSouth. As others have argued, a healthily competitive market cannot be maintained by deregulation in the manner proposed.